There are Two Upcoming Faith Formation and Catechetical Certification Opportunities Beginning the Week of January 20th, 2025:

These are five-week courses beginning January 20th. They are offered through the University of Dayton's Virtual Learning Community for Faith Formation (VLCFF). These courses are hybrid models and are composed of both weekly live two-hour Zoom lectures/discussions as well as a rich variety of online course materials and discussion experiences through the University of Dayton's Virtual Learning Community For Faith Formation (VLCFF). The courses are being underwritten by the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston's Office of Evangelization & Catechesis, who pays 100% of the tuition and the cost of any books associated with the courses. The course instructor is Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu. For further information or to register, please contact Dr. Stoicoiu at rodicastoicoiuphd@gmail.com

The Diocese of Wheeling Charleston offers Catechetical Certification and recognizes VLCFF courses for various levels of certification. Certain courses are especially designed for volunteer catechists, Catholic school religion teachers, members of OCIA teams and all those who would be enriched by formal training in this field. For further information regarding the VLCFF certification program please contact Dr. Stoicoiu. There are 6 required courses for level one certification including the Survey of Doctrine class below. Both classes are open to all adults interested in deepening their faith and growing in their understanding of the theology and Tradition of the Church.

Survey of Catholic Doctrine - This course is part of the level one certification for catechesis. It is open to all who are interested in learning more about their faith. If you are a catechist, a Catholic school religion teacher, or a member of an OICA team you will find this course especially helpful! During this course we will come to a better understanding of some of the major doctrines of the Catholic Church, including: the Trinity, original sin, church, salvation history and the communion of saints. By the completion of the course, participants will be familiar with concepts such as the magisterium, ecumenism and eschatology. This course includes online material and a two-hour weekly zoom meeting on Wednesday evenings 7-9 pm beginning January 23rd. This course is a basic course and is an introductory course in the Catholic Faith. To register or for further information please contact Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu rodicastoicoiuphd@gmail.com

Scripture and Justice - What is our biblical vision of a just community? How are we ordered towards justice and cooperation through the Old and New Testaments? How does scripture provide us with the framework for living justly today? In this course we will study how scripture forms the basis for our Catholic understanding of justice and how justice is an essential part of God's plan for the reign of God, the message of Christ, and the way we the baptized are to live in the world today. This course includes online readings and material and a two hour zoom lecture/discussion Monday evenings from 7-9pm beginning January 20th. To register or for further information please contact Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu rodicastoicoiuphd@gmail.com
