From the Desk of Fr. Dan

Well, we've finally made it to what is celebrated all over the Christian world as Easter, Resurrection Day! On the day our Savior rose from the grave to give us a new life in him. Of course, that's something we all know as Christians. The importance of this day cannot be overstated enough, however. So, revel in this day with joy and gratitude. Enjoy it with family sharing quality time together and of course, good food. My mom is fixing ham, sweet potatoes, succotash, cinnamon Jello, salad, and rolls. Yum, yum. Now that's a dinner Grandpa Jones could get behind (if you know, you know).

I want to thank all of you who helped get both churches looking their best for this weekend, from cleaning, to setting out the flowers and all the decorating needed to make this weekend beautiful. It takes a lot of hard work on the part of the volunteers, so thank you, thank you. As a special gift, Bella is offering big wet kisses to show her appreciation. Although, I suspect some belly rubs might be required as part of the deal.

Here's something to give you a chuckle:

A preacher moved into a new town and decided to go for a walk. He saw a young boy riding his bike and stopped to ask him: "Hello there, young man. Could you tell me where the post office is located?" The young boy says: "Sure, go two more blocks and turn right. You can't miss it." The preacher replied: "Thanks. I'm the new preacher in town, and if you and your family come to church this Sunday, I'll tell you how to get to heaven!" The little boy looks at the man, grins, and says: "Awww, come on. You don't even know the way to the post office."

No pollen formed against me shall prosper. -Benadrylations 24:7

Did a little mechanics work today. I put a rear end in a recliner.

Mom said: "alcohol is your enemy." Jesus said to love your enemies. Case closed.

Cheers.

And finally:

One night a woman was home alone after coming back from her weekly bible study and found a man in her house robbing her. She shouted Acts 2:38, "Repent and be baptized and your sins will be forgiven." The robber quickly gave up, and the woman called the police. While handcuffing the guy, the officer asked him why he gave up so quickly? The robber said: "Well, she had an axe and two .38's!"

Have a wonderful Easter and enjoy the week. Just to let you know, on Tuesday the 7th, we will be having Adoration at AOOL from 5:00-7:00 PM.

HAPPY EASTER

HE is alive and I'm forgiven and His arms are open wide!
