From the Desk of Fr. Dan

Hey, hey, one and all. Hope your week was awesome.

I have some fantastic news for all of our volunteers! Are you sitting down? Just got the word from on high that the Office of Safe Environment has revised the volunteer list for those who must take VIRTUS. Previously, it was all volunteers. It was a blanket policy that meant that no matter if you worked with minor/vulnerable adults or not you had to take VIRTUS. Now, the list is pared down to just those who work with minors on a regular basis. Of course, if you work in the religious ed program (CCD), you still have to do it. That's non-negotiable, but, for those of you who don't, then you're off the hook, so to speak. Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Greeters, Money Counters, Sacristans, Cantors, Choir Members/Music Director, Maintenance, etc. However, if for instance, we can get a choir back up and running and a minor wants to join, then at that point, the choir and music director would have to take VIRTUS. Hopefully that's clear, and I've not muddied it up, and everyone is jumping up and down and kicking up their heels in delight! Maybe even "Dancing in the Street." Think of the 1964 hit by Martha Reeves and the Vandellas. (As a matter of note, I've taken artistic license with the words to make it fit for us.)

Calling out around the world (or at least West Virginia), are you ready for a brand new beat?

Summer's here and the time is right for dancing in the street.

They're dancin' in Fort Ashby (dancing in the street)

Down in Short Gap (dancing in the street)

In Ridgeley (dancing in the Street)

In Springfield (dancing in the street)

In Cumberland (dancing in the street)

And can't forget 'ole Carpendale (dancing in the street)

You get the idea. If you have any questions, please call the office; we will assist you any way we can. Thank you.

Here we go, next:

I had the worst dream last night. I was visited by the ghost of Gloria Gaynor. At first, I was afraid then I was petrified.

A weasel walks into a bar. The bartender says, "wow, I've never served a weasel before. What can I get you?"

"Pop," goes the weasel.

Now for some deep thoughts: Why does it take 7-10 business days to refund my money when it took 5-7 seconds to take it out of my account? Have you ever wondered?

Have a great week.

Both Churches are in need of Faith Formation Teachers/Aides. Lesson books are provided. This is a rewarding position and a lot of fun helping the young ones learn about their faith and God. If you would be interested in helping, contact your DRE or the office. Please consider helping.

In our continued effort to welcome new/newer Parishioners, we would like to place a one time picture and the name of you /your family in our weekly bulletin. This gives our existing Parishioners the opportunity to reach out and extend a warm welcome as well. If you have a picture that you would like us to use, please bring to the office or stop by and we can take a picture to use. Anyone that may be interested, please stop by or call the office.
