From the Desk of Fr. Dan

Aloha! By now we have barged our way into the month of May and with that brings the month of Mary. We have our May crowning this weekend where the children bring the flowers in procession to crown the Blessed Mother with beautiful flowers. At Annunciation, this will be done by the kids receiving their First Communion.

Receiving First Communion is a special moment in the life of a Catholic because it means for the first time, they receive Jesus in the Body and Blood. That means they are eligible to be altar servers! Hint, hint. As you know, at both churches, kids wanting to be altar servers declined. More and more adults stepped up and volunteered to serve, so thank you to them. Recently, at Annunciation, two groups of servers who had retired, decided to come out of retirement and help again. Thank you to them as well. Maybe from the ranks of the First Communicants, we will find another server or two or five.

Our First communicants from Annunciation are: Ausha Hicks, Nicholas Hicks, Ruby Rennix, Jaylyn Spanger and Gabriel Von Hagel. After Mass, we'll have a party for them in the social hall. They will receive their certificates and be able to party like it's 1999. One of them just might be able to drive off in a brand new little red Corvette. Wouldn't that be something?!

Another exciting event coming up in May is Mother's Day on the 11th, which is next week. This is a special day where we get to celebrate with our moms. They deserve our love and gratitude. How are we going to shower our mothers with love on this special day?

One other big event in May is Confirmation on Saturday the 31st at the 4:30 Mass. More on that as we get closer to the big day for our two young ladies who will receive the sacrament from Bishop Brennan.

Just so you know, I am taking the week of the 12th off. Don't worry I'll be around for the weekend Masses.

For a little humor:

One minute you're young and having fun; the next, you're turning down the stereo in your car to see better.

I recently took a pole; I found that 100% of the people in the tent were angry when it collapsed.

I wish Dairy Queen was every two miles like Dollar General.

Today I'll live in the moment, unless the moment becomes unpleasant, in which case I'll take a nap.

We pay taxes on the money we make, while paying taxes on the money we spend, to be taxed on the things we already own and have already paid taxes on.

Also, you can read a bible in prison but not in school.

Something to ponder - things that make you go, hmmm...
