National Vocations Awareness Week (NVAW) - November 2nd - 8th Is an annual celebration dedicated to promoting vocations through prayer, education, and community support. It aims to encourage young people to consider a life dedicated to serving God as priests, deacons, or in religious life. The week is observed in the United States and is an opportunity for parishes and communities to engage in discussions and activities centered around vocations.

 AOOL continues collecting non-perishable food items to fill boxes and distribute to those in need the week before Thanksgiving. Contributions may be placed in the social hall. Thank you for your support!

A candle has been lit this month for Peace & Safety in all Churches by St. Anthony's Guild.

Cut off date for P/B Candy orders is Sunday, November 9th! That doesn't mean we will have your orders ready by then. We just need to know how much we need to make. Please note on the order form when you would like to receive your candy.

 This year, St. Anthony's Guild will be treating Sr. Katherine and the other 12 sisters at the Franciscan Sisters of Christ the Light Convent to a night (or afternoon) at the movies, complete with popcorn, snacks and a drink! If anyone would like to contribute, just put your donation in an envelope with a notation of what it is for. You can also give to Sara-lee Wolfe or Debbie Boone.

Sanctuary Studios "open house" 1st Saturday of each month. GPS address is 13910 Scofield Rd. November 1st, BOOK SALE - new and old, including a new book "Under Your Pillow", by Penny Knobel-Besa. Hilmar Gottesthal's exhibition in Oakland is at the renamed Stonecroft, until November 22nd, at 2 PM, on the 2nd floor when Hilmar will give an artist talk. Call (301) 478-2735 with any questions.

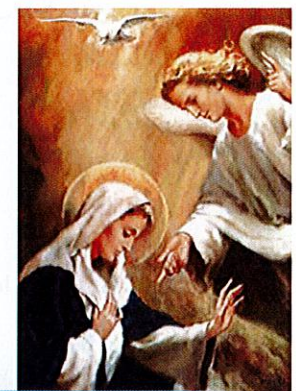

St. Anthony's Guild will meet on Nov. 16th

Give all your worries and cares to God, for He cares about you. 1 Peter 5:7

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

Greetings everyone: Hope you had a fantastic week. Welcome to November, already! October flew right by. This weekend, we celebrate All Souls Day, and we have the Book of Remembrance out for you to sign in your loved ones who have gone on to their reward.

For those inquiring about the windows, two window companies stopped by to give estimates on replacing the windows in the rectory. Both estimates will be evaluated, and we will go from there. Thank you to all who have contributed to the rectory window fund. We could also contact CHS Contracting Co. on Centre St. in Cumberland.

This Tuesday is the First Tuesday of the month and that means Adoration at Annunciation from 5:00 to 7:00 PM. I'm hoping for a good turnout so we can keep offering this opportunity. Attendance has been sparse whether it was on First Friday or now on First Tuesday. What do I do to "drum up business" for it? It's on the bulletin front cover; we announce it at the prior weekend Masses; I mention it in my article. Come out and spend time with Jesus!

The week of November 10th (Monday to Friday the 14th) I will be on vacation, so there will be no daily Mass that week. I also will be taking some days off in December leading up to Christmas (FYI).

This year's combined Christmas party at Annunciation's social hall is Sunday December 14th from 2 PM until ??? Come one; come all! Enjoy good food and good company. I betcha Bella will be there as the official greeter.

Looking far down the road, off into the distance, is what has come to be an annual pastime for us, the Altoona Curve baseball game. We can continue to go in June for a 1:00 PM Sunday game or we could choose another date, maybe early or later in the season when it won't be so hot. If we keep the date in June, we'll try to locate seats that are under cover, in the shade. Also, what is a possibility, is doing the catered picnic down the third base line, under cover. We'd be served some good food: hot dogs, hamburgers, Baked Italian Chicken Breast, BBQ Ribs, baked beans, potato salad, chips, cookies. Drinks are provided, but beer is extra. The picnic area would double as our seats. Again, we'd be under cover. I know some of us were sweltering in the June sun. I know, I know - "suck it up buttercup," but wouldn't it be nice to sit in the shade? Just something to ponder over for the next couple of months. The cost for the catered picnic would be more than just a seat, but maybe worth it, if that's of interest to you. Now, we would not have access to the food throughout the whole game, there is a two-hour window, 12:00-2:00 PM for a 1:00 PM game. I'll have more information about this as it is released.

Here you go:

Store clerk fought off robber with a labelling gun. Police are looking for a man with a price on his head.

It amazes me how much exercise and extra fries sound alike.

I "accidentally" gave my wife a glue stick instead of her lipstick. She's still not talking to me.

I accidentally rubbed ketchup in my eyes. I now have Heinzsight.

Have a wonderful week.
