A research team from West Virginia University and SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry is seeking insights from West Virginians on their experiences with past floods and preparation for future floods. The team is conducting an online survey on the topic and any WV resident 18-years or older is encouraged to participate. This will help them create an online resource to help increase flood resiliency for West Virginia communities. Anyone who takes the survey can choose to be entered into a raffle for one of eight $250 gift cards. To find out more and to fill out the survey, go to mapwv.gov/civic and click on "flood survey" at the top or to go to the survey directly, use this link: <http://tinyurl.com/WestVirginiaFRF>.

JESUS knows his sheep,

to know HIM

From the Desk of Father Dan

Happy Easter!! Resurrection Day has finally arrived, and we are so thankful to our God for his son, Jesus, who expressed that divine love by fulfilling his destiny in dying and then rising from the grave...for us! Out of his great love for us, Christ died. Though we were sinners, God still loved us and sent his son, Jesus, to be that way back to the Father's embrace.

This Easter, as we celebrate this great day with family, good food and hopefully good weather, let us take time to really consider what was done for us by Christ. God is love, as 1 John 4 tells us, so God made a way for us to come back to him. That was through the sacrifice of his son as the Paschal lamb. His blood was shed for our sins so that we would be forgiven. Because of that, we will be welcomed through the pearly gates by St. Peter where we could walk the streets of gold and sit by the glassy sea before we are chauffeured to our mansion on the hill to enjoy eternal bliss with our God forever.

How do you imagine heaven to be? What's the weather like in heaven? If you had a say so, what would every day be like in paradise? Would it be a nice warm Spring Day with a slight breeze blowing? Would there be fields upon fields with wildflowers? Would your yard have perfectly cut grass, greener than you could ever imagine? The best part, never having to do yard work again and still having the perfect yard. For some it would be deer season every day where you would get the biggest buck, or out fishing and you get the biggest fish every time, and not have to lie about it. Sounds heavenly, doesn't it? But whatever we dream heaven to be, it's nothing compared to what it truly will be. We have our Savior to thank for that, and we celebrate that today.

Why is everyone so tired on Easter? Because they just finished a 31-day March. What does the Easter bunny say before dinner? "Lettuce pray."

"May the glory and the promise of this joyous time of year bring peace and happiness to you and those you hold dear. And may Christ, our risen Savior, always be there by your side to bless you most abundantly and be your loving guide." - Author unknown

Have a great Easter and a wonderful week!
