*May we always remember the sacrifice YOU made,
for all of us.*

Dear Jesus,

You call us, as members of the body of Christ, to serve one another. This Lent, may we be your eyes, to see with compassion. May we be your hands and feet, to serve with love. By encountering you in the Bread of Life, may we joyfully share bread for life with all members of our global family.

Amen

From the Desk of Father Dan

Top of the week there to ya. We have now officially entered into the month of March, and spring is not far away, yea buddy!! If you’ve noticed, and I know you have, the weather seems to be keeping fairly steady in the 50s and 60s; let’s hope it keeps it up.

As we enter the 3rd week of Lent, I thought I’d share a prayer I found from a priest I used to go to seminary with, Fr. Andrew Nelson of the Diocese of Manchester (NH). I was looking up guys I knew in seminary, seeing where they were, and I came across Andrew. He is the pastor of St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish in Somersworth, NH. By the way, he is a contributor to Parable magazine (the diocesan magazine) and has won several awards for his writing. He has a way of convincing you that you want to do things you didn’t know you wanted to do, if you know what I mean. I was perusing the latest bulletin from his church, and I found this prayer that I thought I’d share with you. Did he write it? Probably, but not sure. Either way, it’s a nice prayer for us in our Lenten journey.

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of today and for the gift of being able to share our faith in community and within our homes. Please continue to open our eyes and our ears to how you are moving in each of our hearts this Lent. May we walk through this season intentionally, removing distractions that take our gaze away from your glory. As we take battle against spiritual evils, may we be armed with weapons of self-restraint. Our self-sacrifices serve no purpose unless we unite them to you. In you, in your life, in your suffering, in your death, and in your Resurrection, we find triumph and our truest joy. Through works of penance and of charity, may these weeks leading up to Good Friday and the glory of your Resurrection remind us of who you are, how you love us, and who you have created us to be as your followers. Give us the grace to witness to your joy this day and forever, uniting our sacrifices and prayers to you. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Have a super week!

Friday, March 15th, 5:30 PM
